SAP Rise into the Future virtual event

Registrant Terms and Conditions

These SAP Rise into the Future virtual event Registrant Terms and Conditions (“Terms and Conditions”) govern your relationship with SAP SE, SAP Global Marketing Inc., and its affiliates (collectively, “SAP”) in connection with your registration and participation during SAP Rise into the Future virtual event (“Program”) and any communication and exchange you have with SAP in connection with the Program, whether before, during, or after the Program. By registering for the Program, you agree to comply with these Terms and Conditions.

Registration and Participation

Attending the Program requires registration. Registration is only confirmed upon receipt of the confirmation email which also includes additional information with respect to the Program. SAP reserves the right at its sole discretion to refuse or cancel your registration at any time with no liability.

Code of Conduct

SAP supports a diverse and inclusive culture where everyone can feel welcome to participate free from harassment or summary judgment. All participants in the online event and virtual networking are expected to be respectful, maintain the privacy of others, adhere to copyright laws, and refrain from promoting business services while on the platform. Failure to comply may result in the participant being removed.

No Recordings

SAP does not authorize anyone to photograph, video, or record talks or otherwise make screenshots of presentations made at the Program – including, but not limited to, keynotes and presentations, without the express written permission of SAP and the person(s) being recorded. Any person in violation of this policy or recording for any commercial purpose may be asked to leave the Program. This policy applies to any official exhibit displays. To request permission to record onto any media, please contact RiseintotheFuture@sap.com. SAP does not guarantee that such requests will be approved.

Recordings

You acknowledge that SAP may record your image, photograph, and voice by any technology or means (the “Recording”) indiscriminately as part of the Program recording where you are a non-material part of the aforementioned recording in accordance with and as allowed under applicable law. During panel or other discussion sessions where you volunteer to speak, you acknowledge that we may broadcast, film, or photograph you individually and if you do not wish to be broadcasted, filmed, or photographed in this way, please refrain from volunteering. Be mindful that sessions may be recorded, and that it rests in your discretion to avoid any quotes, recordings, or other commentary by simply refraining to pass such comments or contribute to the discussion at the Program using your camera or microphone. If you don’t agree to us using a specific image or video segment displaying you in such context, please allude us to the respective file we will immediately refrain from further use and delete any of such material.

You agree and acknowledge that your personal data which may be contained in the Recordings will be processed by SAP to fulfill SAP's legitimate business purposes as further described in these Terms and Conditions and that you have the right to object to such a use of personal data at any time as described in the Privacy Policy linked below.

Disclaimer

The Program materials are provided for informational purposes only, without representation or warranty of any kind. SAP shall not be liable for damages of any kind resulting from errors or omissions in the Program materials, nor shall SAP be liable for any damages resulting from the use of the Program materials or other information conveyed at the Program. The only warranties for SAP products and services are those that are set forth in the express warranty statements accompanying such products and services, if any. Nothing herein should be construed as constituting an additional warranty.
